6.	IRS Income Tax Exemption(s). The assignment of any tax exemption for the child(ren) shall be as follows:
7.	Other provisions relating to temporary child support:
SECTIO	N VI. METHOD OF PAYMENT
Obligor	shall pay any temporary court-ordered child support/alimony and arrears, if any, as follows:
1.	Place of Payment
	<ul> <li>Obligor shall pay temporary court-ordered support directly to either the State         Disbursement Unit or the central depository, as required by statute, along with any fee required by statute.     </li> </ul>

	b Both parties have requested and the court finds that it is in the best interests of the child(ren) that temporary support payments need not be directed through either the State Disbursement Unit or the central depository at this time; however, either party may subsequently apply, pursuant to section 61.13(1)(d)3, Florida Statutes, to require payments through either the State Disbursement Unit or the central depository.
2.	Income Deduction.
	Immediate. Obligor shall pay through income deduction, pursuant to a separate Income Deduction Order which shall be effective immediately. Obligor is individually responsible for paying this temporary support obligation until all of said support is deducted from Obligor's income. Until temporary support payments are deducted from Obligor's paycheck, Obligor is responsible for making timely payments directly to the State Disbursement Unit or the Obligee, as previously set forth in this order.
	Deferred. Income deduction is ordered this day, but it shall not be effective until a delinquency of $, or, if not specified, an amount equal to one month's obligation occurs. Income deduction is not being implemented immediately based on the following findings: Income deduction is not in the best interests of the child(ren) because: {explain}
	AND there is proof of timely payment of a previously ordered obligation without an income deduction order in cases of modification, AND there is an agreement by the Obligor to advise the Title IV-D agency, the clerk of court, and the Obligee of any change in Payor and/or health insurance
	OR  there is a signed written agreement providing an alternative arrangement between the Obligor and the Obligee and, at the option of the IV-D agency, by the IV-D agency in IV-D cases in which there is an assignment of support rights to the state, reviewed and entered in the record by the court.
3.	Bonus/one-time payments. All% No income paid in the form of a bonus or other similar one-time payment, up to the amount of any arrearage or the remaining balance thereof owed pursuant to this order, shall be forwarded to the Obligee pursuant to the payment method prescribed above.
